Salute To Senator Moses

Address by Senator Harry F Byrd, Jr in the Virginia Senate on Monday, November 30, 1964

Since the Senate last met we have lost one of our most beloved members, Charles T. Moses, of Appomattox.

I served nearly 18 years with Senator Moses, and much of that time we sat along side one another.

None knows better than the Senate of Virginia what a really splendid individual Charlie Moses was. He was forthright and frank, and completely without guile.

He had strong convictions and deep beliefs.

He had the courage to speak out, the courage to take an unpopular side, the courage to stay on the course in which he believed, even though the political winds sought to force him into a contrary direction.

Charlie Moses had a capacity for friendship.

He was loyal to his friends and in return he commanded loyalty.

At the times of his death the Senator from Appomattox was the senior member of the Virginia Senate. He served continuously from 1936, when he succeeded the beloved Sam Ferguson, also a native of Appomattox.

Charlie Moses was proud of his county. He represented Appomattox with faithfulness and with ability, just as he represented the other counties of his district-Buckingham, Cumberland, Powhatan, Amherst, Nelson and Amelia.

Without Charlie Moses, the Virginia Senate will be a bit different.
